Blessings from Pastor Tino | “Grow in Faith, Hope, Peace & Love”

Aloha, Community...

And a busy October it was! But here we are beloved community, moving forward like a strong-steamed locomotive as Christ lays down our rails.

As I reflect on the month of November, it has always been for me and my siblings a special month, as Mama’s birthday falls on Thanksgiving Day this year. Mama would have been 96 this year. She always loved when her birthday fell on Thanksgiving Day because she could celebrate a day of thanksgiving with the precious jewel she cherished the most – her family. I couldn’t have chosen a better memory to write about on this month and not think of YOU – my new extended family. As we celebrate All Saints day, let us remember those “saint-like” figures, who may not always have gotten it right, but have shaped us to who we are and who we are becoming.

So, with that, we are arriving at a special day for all of us, our installation on the 12th at 3 in the afternoon. It has been a long journey for me as I began my discernment process in being a pastor of a church. God has brought us together Iao UCC, a church that boldly envisions new and innovative ways of “being the church” and a pastor that is not just an extrovert, but one that leads with faith and courage. This month, not only do we continue with our stewardship campaign, let us also reflect on Consecration Sunday on the 12th, remember our Veterans on the 11th, Transgender day of remembrance on the 19th, time of Thankfulness on the 23rd, and our last day of Pentecost – the Reign of Christ on the 25th, just to name a few.

I would like to extend my deepest gratitude to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, who has brought us all together to be his hands and feet out in our communities. As we formalize our ministry together on the 12th, I encourage us ALL to remain steadfast in our prayers for one another and remember that each of our gifts and talents are a blessing to this our Church we call Iao UCC. I extend a special thanks to Lloyd who coordinated the installation and the Tri-Isle Association for guiding us in the process. With that, I wish to close with these words of “I Need You to Survive” by Hezekiah Walker...

*I need you, you need me.
We're all a part of God's body.
Stand with me, agree with me.
We're all a part of God's body.*

*It is God's will, that every need be supplied.
You are important to me, I need you to survive.
You are important to me, I need you to survive.*

*I pray for you, you pray for me.
I love you, I need you to survive.
I won't harm you with words from my mouth.
I love you, I need you to survive.*

*It is God's will, that every need be supplied.
You are important to me, I need you to survive.*

In the photo above, Iao Preschool kids made a little parade and procession up to Pastor Tino's office, to offer him gifts of baked goods and Halloween songs & greetings.

Aloha Hour Supplies

For Aloha Hour, the Buildings and Grounds Team will have a plastic tub set up with supplies used. There will be supplies such as plates, cups, utensils, and napkins. This plastic tub will be located in Fujitomo Hall.

On Sundays, Aloha Hour hosts/hostesses are asked to bring the tub down from Fujitomo Hall and returned to the same location after. Please list on the tub any items needing re-stocking and the Team will make every effort to keep up with the inventory.

Editor's Note

By I. nebres

This month's Iao Pepa is a very short 4-page issue, for a number of reasons.

Primarily, it's because church staff (well, me ::chuckle::) has been extraordinarily busy over the past month since right after our Fair Booth busy-ness at the Maui Fair, preparing for Pastor Tino's installation weekend.

I suppose I can also justify this brevity by pointing to the longer-than-usual last issue and its plethora of photos and articles on the life and times of this small church in Wailuku. :-)

At any rate, do expect the forthcoming December issue of Iao Pepa to be an action-packed one, as we will surely have lots of news to share—not least the photos and stories from Pastor Tino's installation Sunday, and a wonderful story about the dedication of signs and a plaque at Watanabe Hall, which is where the Iao Preschool lives.

The important thing for this issue is the list of events there on the right—mark your calendars now, for the services and events of Advent.

Until December, then... I remain your faithful church secretary and newsletter editor...
